1 TO THE HONORABLE DENNIS MONTALI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
2 JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED
3 PARTIES:

4 The Singleton Law Firm (“SLF”) and Marshack Hays LLP, together with several other firms,
5 represent thousands of victims (“SLF Claimants”) of the fires started by PG&E in 2015 (“Butte
6 Fire”), 2017 (the twenty fires generally referred to as the “North Bay” and “Wind Complex Fires”),
7 2018 (“Camp Fire”) and 2019 (“Kincade Fire” and “LaFayette Fire”).

8 SLF respectfully file this motion on behalf of Richard Max Gamez, Krista LeeAnna Siebler,
9 PLG (a minor), DRM (a minor), and AMG (a minor) (collectively “Movants”) to deem timely late
10 filed proofs of claim (“Motion”).

11 I. Summary of Argument

12 A proof of claim may be deemed timely upon a showing of excusable neglect and lack of 13 prejudice. In this case, due to a variety of stressors arising from the Sulphur Fire, Movants did not
14 timely file their proofs of claim. Because there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors as Debtors’
15 estates are solvent, and all creditors stand to be paid, the Motion should be granted to allow these 16 survivors to have their claims deemed timely. This Court must determine whether to grant the Motion.

17 II. Factual Background

18 A. Movant’s Claims Arising From Sulphur Fire<sup>1</sup>

19 Creditors Richard Max Gamez (“Richard”), Krista LeeAnna Siebler (“Krista”), and their three 20 children<sup>2</sup> PLG, DRM, and AMG (collectively, “Children”) are all survivors of the 2017 Sulphur Fire.

21 Elizabeth Haley (“Elizabeth”) is a client of SLF and Richard’s mother.<sup>3</sup> At the time of the 22 Sulphur Fire, Movants lived with Elizabeth<sup>4</sup> at her home at 440 Schindler Street, Clearlake Oaks, 23 California 95423 (“Property”).

26 <sup>2</sup> PLG is the biological child of Richard but not Krista.

27 <sup>3</sup> On October 18, 2019, a proof of claim was timely filed on behalf of Elizabeth Haley.

28 <sup>4</sup> Elizabeth did not understand Richard, Krista, and the three Children may also have claims against Debtors despite not owning the Property. Thus, no proofs of claims were filed for the Movants.

1 On approximately July 24, 2020, Elizabeth informed SLF that not only were Movants present
2 during the Sulphur Fire but that they suffered emotional distress as a result.

3 Due to Elizabeth's misunderstandings, SLF did not receive information related to Movants in 4 order to to timely complete Movants' proof of claim. As such, no proofs of claim were timely filed on 5 behalf of Movants.

6 On July 29, 2020, SLF filed claim numbers OXAAS27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]],
7 MNRG#27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], XSRHF27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]],
8 EDM$Y27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], LKDAQ27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]] on behalf of Richard, Krista,
9 and their Children ("Subject Proofs of Claim"). True and correct copies of the Subject Proofs of 10 Claim is attached to the Huffman Declaration as Exhibit "1."

11 Thus, SLF now brings Motion to have the Subject Proofs of Claim deemed timely.

12 B. Pertinent Bankruptcy Background

13 On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("Debtors" 14 or "PG&E") commenced with the Court voluntary cases ("Chapter 11 Cases") under chapter 11 of the 15 United States Code ("Bankruptcy Code"). PG&E's chapter 11 filings were necessitated by a 16 confluence of factors resulting from catastrophic fires that occurred in Northern California prior to 17 the Petition Date, and PG&E's potential liabilities arising therefrom.

18 The deadline for filing proofs of claim with respect to any prepetition claim including, but not 19 limited to, all claims of Fire Claimants, Wildfire Subrogation Claimants, Governmental Units and 20 Customers, and for the avoidance of doubt, including all secured claims and priority claims, against 21 either of the Debtors was October 21, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. ("General Bar Date").

22 The deadline for filing claims was extended to December 31, 2019 ("Extended Bar Date"),
23 solely for the benefit of any non-governmental Fire Claimants who did not filed Proofs of Claim by 24 the General Bar Date. See, Dk. No. 4672.

25 On January 31, 2020, as Dk. No. 5590, the Debtors filed an Amended Chapter 11 Plan
26 Debtors' and Shareholder Proponents' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated January 31, 27 2020

28 On February 7, 2020, as Dk. No. 5700, the Debtors filed a Disclosure Statement for the

1 Amended Plan.

2 On February 19, 2020, as Dk. No. 5835, the Debtors filed Motion for Entry of an Order (I)
3 Approving Form and Manner of Notice of Hearing on Proposed Disclosure Statement; (II)
4 Establishing and Approving Plan Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (III) Approving Forms of 5 Ballots, Solicitation Packages, and Related Notices; and (IV) Granting Related Relief (“Solicitation
6 Procedures Motion”).

7 On March 17, 2020, the Solicitations Procedures Motion was approved.

8 After filing multiple iterations of the plan, on June 19, 2020, as Dk. No 8048, the Debtors
9 filed an Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization dated June 19, 2020 (“Final Plan”).

10 On June 20, 2020, post-voting and hotly contested confirmation hearings, the bankruptcy
11 court entered an order confirming the Final Plan. See, Dk. No. 8053.

12 C. SLF Audit Procedures and Discovery of Movants’ Claim<sup>5</sup>

13 SLF frequently sends update letters to all SLF Claimants. In the general communication
14 letters sent throughout 2019, SLF stressed to clients the importance of confirming their name, date of 15 birth and burn address (impacted address) and notifying SLF of any other persons for Proof of Claim
16 filing purposes, which would then need subsequent confirmation. Additionally, SLF conducted an 17 audit (“Audit Process”) of all SLF Fire Victim Claimants, asking them to confirm their name, date of 18 birth, and burn address in writing. Specifically, the Audit Process included the following:

- 19 1. Email all SLF Claimants (“Client(s)”) from pgeclaims@slffirm.com stating that SLF
20 needed them to confirm their full legal name, date of birth, and burn address for all 21 parties on their case and to also let us know of any other persons and/or entities that 22 should be included for Proof of Claim purposes.
- 23 2. Upon receiving a Client email SLF replied to that email address the information 24 contained in the email was reviewed and compared to that which SLF had in the 25 client’s file.

26
27
28 <sup>5</sup> See, Declaration of Matt Huffman, ¶¶8-11.

3. If there were discrepancies, then the SLF's handling staff made notes in the "BK audit notes" field in the Client's file and then followed up with the client via email to reconcile.
4. Once the discrepancies were resolved and all the case parties (individuals and entities) confirmed, then those additional parties were added into the Client file as a recognized case party.
5. Alternatively, if the information in the client email response matched, the BK audit on that Client file was deemed complete and no further handling was needed.
6. All Client emails were saved and contact logs were made in the client file.
7. If a new case party was added, a retainer was sent for their signature.

On January 5, 2019, Elizabeth executed a retainer with SLF. But no mention of Richard, Krista or the three children was noted at that time. Thereafter on March 14, 2019, a client intake form was completed for Elizabeth by SLF, but again there was no mention of Richard, Krista or the three children. Accordingly on, October 18, 2019, a timely proof of claim was filed for Elizabeth only.

Thereafter, on July 24, 2020, during a narrative interview with SLF, Elizabeth disclosed that Richard, Krista and the three children were at her home for the duration of the Sulphur Fire.

III. Legal Argument

In a Chapter 11 case, the time to file a proof of claim may be extended under certain circumstances. Fed. R. Bank. Pro. 3003(c)(3); Fed. R. Bank. Pro. 9006(b)(1). The bankruptcy court has "broad equitable powers" in a Chapter 11 case with respect to the timing requirement for proofs of claim. Pioneer Inventory Services v. Brunswick Associates Limited Partnership, 507 U.S. 380, 389 (1993). All in all, Rule 9006(b)(1) allows "late filings caused by inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, not just those caused by intervening circumstances beyond the party's control." Id., at 381. Even a creditor that did in fact receive notice may file a proof of claim notwithstanding the expiration of a claims bar date in a Chapter 11 case upon a showing of "excusable neglect." Id. at 394-95 ("Had respondents here been prevented from complying with the bar date by an act of God or some other circumstance beyond their control, the Bankruptcy Court plainly would have been permitted to find 'excusable neglect' [under FRBP 9006].").

1 In considering whether a creditor's failure was the product of "excusable neglect," the court
2 should take "account of all relevant circumstances surrounding the party's omission," including "the 3 danger of prejudice to the debtor, the length of the delay and its potential impact on judicial 4 proceedings, the reason for the delay, including whether it was within the reasonable control of the 5 movant, and whether the movant acted in good faith." Id. at 395; see also Corning v. Corning (In re
6 Zilog, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996 (9th Cir. 2006) (noting Pioneer's non-exhaustive list of relevant factors).
7 Again, a late-filed proof of claim is allowable where a creditor had actual notice of the bankruptcy
8 but, due to some external reason, failed to file a proof of claim or did not realize that she had to,
9 before the bar date. See, e.g., ZiLOG, Inc. v. Corning (In re ZiLOG, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996, 1003-07 (9th
10 Cir. 2006) (applying the Pioneer factors). All in all, Rule 9006(b)(1) allows "late filings caused by 11 inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, not just those caused by intervening circumstances beyond the 12 party's control." Pioneer, 507 U.S. at 381. Here, consideration of all four Pioneer factors—as well as 13 a fifth engrafted onto the Pioneer analysis by some courts—weighs in favor of Movants.

14 Because in this case there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors, the first Pioneer factor
15 weighs overwhelmingly in Movant's favor. Debtors' estates are solvent, and all creditors stand to be 16 paid. See, e.g., In re Best Payphones, Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-6 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re
17 Sheehan Mem'l Hosp., 507 B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2014) (where the chapter 11 estate is 18 solvent, "the proper remedy for a late filing is not the expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a 19 tardily filed claim only.). Secondly, immediately, upon receiving all the necessary information the 20 Subject Proofs of Claim were filed. Thirdly, the delay in filing the Subject Proof of Claim is 21 reasonable considering immediately upon becoming aware that they may be compensated for 22 damages suffered, a proof of claim was filed by SLF on behalf of Movants. Lastly, any prospect of 23 prejudice beyond solvency is unlikely given (a) distributions have not been made; and (b) the value of 24 Movants' claims relative to the value of Debtors' estates is low. See, e.g., In re Keene Corp., 188
25 B.R. 903, 910 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1995) (size of the late claim in relation to the estate is a 26 consideration in determining prejudice).

27 IV. Conclusion

28 For the reasons set forth above, the Movant respectfully request that this Court enter an order

1 pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)(1) as follows:

- 2 1. Granting the Motion;
- 3 2. Finding that Subject Proofs of Claim filed by Movants are to be allowed as having
- 4 been timely filed;
- 5 3. Granting such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Declaration of Matt Huffman

I, Matt Huffman, say and declare as follows:

1. I am an individual over 18 years of age and competent to make this Declaration.

2. If called upon to do so, I could and would competently testify as to the facts set forth in this Declaration. The facts set forth below are true of my personal knowledge.

3. I am an attorney of counsel with Singleton Law Firm and I make this declaration in support the Motion to Allow/Deem Timely Late Filing of Proof of Claim ("Motion").

4. Creditors Richard Max Gamez ("Richard"), Krista LeeAnna Siebler ("Krista"), and their three children<sup>6</sup> PLG, FRM, and AMG (collectively, "Children") are all survivors of the 2017 Sulphur Fire.

5. Elizabeth Haley ("Elizabeth") is a client of SLF and Richard's mother.<sup>7</sup> At the time of the Sulphur Fire, Movants lived with Elizabeth<sup>8</sup> at her home at 440 Schindler Street, Clearlake Oaks, California 95423 ("Property").

6. On approximately July 24, 2020, Elizabeth informed me that not only were Movants present during the Sulphur Fire but that they suffered emotional distress as a result.

7. Due to Elizabeth's misunderstandings, SLF did not receive information related to Movants in order to to timely complete Movants' proof of claim. As such, no proofs of claim were timely filed on behalf of Movants.

8. On July 29, 2020, SLF filed claim numbers OXAAS27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], MNRG#27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], XSRHF27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], EDM$Y27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]], LKDAQ27402[[CSLT#4025#CF]] on behalf of Richard, Krista, and their Children ("Subject Proofs of Claim"). True and correct copies of the Subject Proofs of Claim is attached collectively as Exhibit "1."

<sup>7</sup> On October 18, 2019, a proof of claim was timely filed on behalf of Elizabeth Haley.

<sup>8</sup> Elizabeth did not understand Richard, Krista, and the three Children may also have claims against Debtors despite not owning the Property. Thus, no proofs of claims were filed for the Movants.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Attach Supporting Documentation (limited to a single PDF attachment that is less than 5 megabytes in size and under 100 pages):

☐ I have supporting documentation.
(attach below)

☒ I do not have supporting documentation.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
